

University Governance Council

Charge & Membership 2022-23 their designates, the Council serves as a coordinating structure to review institutional its recommendations to the President's Cabinet, the chief policy and decision-making body of the University. In addition to the Council, the Office of the Chancellor, the Assistant Provost for Institutional Effectiveness provides administrative support for governance and In addition to institutional policy duties, the UGC provides a forum to ensure bodies—Faculty Senate, Staff Senate, and Student Government—have ample opportunity to discuss other University issues and initiatives with one another.

Dr. Michelle Maldonado, Interim Provost & Senior VP Academic Affairs, convenes the President's Cabinet

Dr. Bryan Burnham, President, convenes the Faculty Senate*